

Tyson fire destroys building

News bulletin

A fire gutted a metal building in the live haul section of the Tyson Foods processing plant in Wilkesboro on Friday morning (March 9) around 9:30 a.m. According to reports there were no injuries. Firefighters from Wilkesboro and North Wilkesboro fire departments responded to the scene along with Wilkes Rescue Squad personnel and Wilkesboro Police. The building, which burned, is reportedly used as a bay to bring live chickens to the plant. Record photos – Jerry Lankford

