

Man injured in fire on Camp Jo Harris Road

by Staff

A man, identified as Radford Hendrix, 40, Franklin Drive near Camp Jo Harris Road in the Broadway Fire District, received injuries in a mobile home fire early Saturday night, Jason Hart, a Broadway Fire Department spokesman said.

His injuries were described as primarily smoke inhalation. Hendrix was airlifted by a helicopter for treatment at Duke Medical Center in Durham.

Broadway Fire Department was dispatched initially by Wilkes Communications Center, North Wilkesboro Fire Department was dispatched to assist Broadway.

The fire apparently started in a hall of the mobile home, Niki Hamby, Wilkes County Sheriff's Department Fire Investigator said. Firemen saved the mobile home.

There was damage in the hall, and smoke damage throughout the mobile home, Hart said.
